

Package Feed Module

1. “Employee” means any individual in Licensee’s organization that may request, have deployed to, or otherwise receive any application, package, or other software prepared using Package Feed Module. Package Feed Module may be installed and used by Licensee on computers only at Licensee’s site(s) solely for the benefit of some or all of the Employees within Licensee’s organization, and only if that total number of Employees within Licensee’s organization does not exceed the License Level. For the purpose of certification as set forth in the Agreement, the number of Employees includes the highest number of Employees that were in place at any point during the previous year.
  2. Limitations. While Package Feed Module is intended to help obtain and create packages for a wide range of third party software products, Flexera makes no representation or warranty that Package Feed Module will provide support for all products.
  3. Internal Purposes. The license granted hereunder is for the purpose of distributing packages to Licensee’s own systems and employees. Distribution of packages to any third-party customer of Licensee shall require a separate license.
  4. Software. For the purpose of the Agreement, Package Feed Module is considered “Software”.
